Attractions

Minneapolis is a progressive city with a dynamic vibe and a whirlwind of creative energy. Here you will find all the attractions, events and excitement of a major metropolitan area, without the hassles. Happy hour at the hot new "it-spot", tickets to the Guthrie Theatre and late night plans to enjoy live music? No problem. Compact, easy to navigate, and affordable, the location of the Downtown District loft allows you to squeeze a lot into your visit.

Theatrical performances, multi-level sports events, world class museums, and picturesque strolls in a green urban environment will astonish you! The Downtown District Loft is located just 1 block from the Mississippi River, where you will also have quick access to biking paths and walking trails winding along the Mississippi riverfront parkway linking to the entire Minneapolis parks system and chain of lakes.

The Loft is steps from the new Twinsville and only a short light-rail ride away from the Mall of America and International Airport. Whether you are looking for a quiet weekend in an historic city, a weekend of first class sporting events and concerts, or simply a shop-'til-you-drop experience, the Downtown District Loft has something to offer everyone.
