

Eagle River, WI

LOON BAY ESCAPE

Sunlight pours through the views of the lake and woods in this beautiful executive vacation home with three levels of bright and modern living space. This vacation home sits so close to the water that you will feel a total connection with nature, all while using your own personal row boat and paddleboat.

Enjoy the laughter of your friends and family around the firepit located directly on the shoreline or curl up on the couch and watch the flames of the natural stone fireplace after a large meal cooked in a beautiful commercial grade kitchen. This spacious home is perfect for all occasions with plenty of room for all your guests, while still allowing plenty of privacy from the stresses of everyday life. Escape to the Loon Bay and enjoy a peaceful slice of the northwoods.

Attractions

There is so much to do on the chain of lakes and around Eagle River, Wisconsin! Nearly anything you want to do on vacation we can arrange for you. The following will give you a brief idea of all the activities the area has to offer.

The famous 28-lake Eagle River Chain is the largest inland interconnected freshwater chain of lakes anywhere in the world. Whether you feel like trying your luck on snow skis, fishing a secluded bay, or simply relaxing on your deck, the Island View I is for you.

Vacationing on the world's largest inland chain of lakes means you can do everything by boat! Shopping, fine dining and casual lunching, listening to live music, golfing, hiking, and picnicking (the list goes on and on), can all be done directly from your rental home by traveling through our waterways.
