Only a short ocean walk away is the village area. Rolling out the red carpet with Mediterranean charm and Southern Californian vibe, fine dining, boutique shopping, cultural activities, art galleries, and theatre opportunities abound. It is no wonder La Jolla's 'Prospect Street' was dubbed 'San Diego's Rodeo Drive'.

One of La Jolla's main attractions is the Birch Aquarium at Scripps Institute of Oceanography, UCSD. Here you can experience a diverse variety of marine life and explore a rocky tide pool over looking the coastline. La Jolla also offers spectacular activities such as hang gliding, kayaking, fishing, and world class surfing at one of the many historic beach locales along the Pacific shoreline. Of course, if you are a golfer you have the opportunity to play the world renowned Torrey Pines Golf Course as well as dozens of other golf courses in the area.

The most popular activity in La Jolla is relaxing. From the steps of the Wind & Sea Beach House you can find a small secluded beach to enjoy a great book or take in the warm Southern California sunshine.

Whether you feel adventurous to try something new or just enjoy the great company of friends and family, the Wind & Sea Beach House allows you the opportunity to Escape. Spend time away from the hustle of daily life with no worries or cares in the world.
